

Dear Stakeholder,

New MyHome Income Adjustment for 2015

It's that time of the year again when we adjust our income level for the Affordable Housing segment. The new Financial Sector Code definitions for the Affordable Housing segment for 2015 financial year is R20 000.

As Absa Home Loans we have taken a strategic decision to adjust our Affordable Housing income from R18600 to R20000 (single or joint household monthly income) accordingly.

Please note our MyHome proposition will continue to support the Affordable Housing segment and the following compulsory special conditions will be applied:

- Borrower Education,
- Life Policy and
- Home Owners Comprehensive insurance

This new income level is effective immediately.

We thank you for your ongoing support.

Kind regards

Callie Ueckermann
